SUPER 8 MAN, designed and built from the latest nuclear age technology, this incredibly agile robot moves at lightning speed and looks completely human, yet he is constructed with the most advanced internal computers and the strongest of steel.

SUPER 8 MAN has the intelligence, thoughts, and memories of a great police detective programmed into his metaphysically driven processors. With great conviction, he defends the rights of mere mortals in order to maintain justice, and protects the world from a biological computer that threatens mankind.
